Francie Schermerhorn ECAHS Lifetime Achievement Award Winner 2020

ECAHS practiced social distancing to the extreme. The ECAHS Crabtree Celebration was cancelled for the first time in over a quarter of a century. This meant that our honorees for 2020 were unable to be honored during our Saturday evening program. The awards were mailed to most of our honorees. I was given the honor to present the Lifetime Achievement Award in person along with the Benefactor of the Breed award. I had every reason to believe that I would be able to visit these two winners in a reasonable period of time. After several conversations with Francie Schermerhorn, we decided that it would be safer for everyone if I did not make the 5 hour trip to her home in northwestern New York. Sharon and I made up a package with her award, several picture canvases of some of her horses and a calendar. Francie said she was overwhelmed when she received the package and was so sorry that we had to cancel the Celebration. She wishes ECAHS much success in the future and she is honored and humbled to join our previous honorees.

Francie Schermerhorn with her Lifetime Achievement Award.

I am still working on trying to deliver the Benefactor of the Breed award. A report and picture will be prepared for a future newsletter. Stayed tuned!

News from Ravenhill Arabians

While last year didn't start out very auspiciously with Ravenhill Tsornin+ (Scutch) needing to be treated for Lyme and then partially tearing a gastroc muscle which took months to rehab; but Rowdi Magic Sundancer (Rhian) really stepped up and started her show career off with a bang in spite of not being too sure about flowers on the side of some dressage rings.

Scutch was able to come back and do some shows at the end of the year and while it wasn't quite the show season I had planned for him he still did fairly well overall. I am again treating him for a Lyme flair up but I think I caught it early enough this time that we should be able to get a full season of showing in and maybe even get to some endurance rides and CTRs this year.

Rhian is really coming into her own but I'm not sure if this year will involve any showing for her at this point. As I've learned - it's best to be flexible with planning so I have some thoughts at this point but we shall see how it goes.

For last year though, we didn't do too bad
