Sad and Tragic week

A dear friend of ours had a week that no-one should have to endure.

Jan Williams, director of Southeast Pennsylvania Arabian Horse Association and a member and frequent volunteer the The Eastern Crabbet Arabian Horse Society suffered two tragic losses in one week.

On June 14th, 2021, Jan lost her precious Arabian mare, Rhio Bey (Rhoquest x Contessa Bey). March 25, 1991 - June 14, 2021. Jan bred this mare and owned her for her entire life. She could almost be called ribbon girl because she and Jan covered hundreds and hundreds of miles marking trail and recovering the ribbons after the Cheshire competitive trail and SEPAHA pleasure trail rides.

Rhio was lucky to have Jan and Jan enjoyed and loved her Rhio.

Incredibly, less than a week later, Jan had to put down her wonderful 22 year old gelding, Shah Conquistador (Shah of Gizeh x Patricia Deere). July 21, 1999 - June 20, 2021. If Rhio was her girl, Shaq was definitely her boy.

Shak spent the end of his life boarding here at True Blue Arabians. He was a very attractive bay gelding who enjoyed sharing pastures with many mares. It was so much fun to see Shak change as soon as he saw his mamma Jan come down the driveway in her jeep. He would come to life and sparkle looking forward to quality time with Jan.

Our sympathy and prayers go out to Jan and her family. These two horses were a big part of the Williams family, for her children's entire lives. Rhio and Shaq will be missed but never forgotten.
